

Art History with Rosemarie Devereux – Tues 23 Feb & Wed 24 Feb

For those interested in art or who would like to know more about the national collection, our member Rosemarie Devereux is offering a complimentary online talk on some of our nation's most interesting paintings which hang in the National Gallery of Ireland. The session will last approximately 90 minutes during which 10 Irish and European paintings will be explored under different themes such as history, social record, provenance and international women artists. Depending on numbers there will be opportunities to ask questions during and after the talk. There will be two sessions to choose from to facilitate those who are working - Tuesday 23rd February from 7.30 to 9.pm or Wednesday 24th February at 10 am until 11.30am. For those interested please email Rosemarie at loveirishart@gmail.com to book a place on their preferred date by Monday 22nd February latest. The zoom link will be sent out 10 mins before each session starts.
